

A former radio jock for the 'Armed Forces Radio and Television Network', Jerry Gemme has been involved in the live entertainment industry his entire life.

As 'Chief Audio Engineer' for a major Boston sound system company, he has toured extensively with such world renowned acts as Aerosmith, Blood Sweat & Tears, Kenny Loggins, Chick Corea & RTF, just to name a few. He also holds audio engineering credits on several internationally distributed cd's.

Also, a former stage manager and producer, he has been responsible for the coordination and performance of band, lighting and sound crews for thousands of live shows in the U.S. and Canada ranging from local 'opening acts' to blockbuster performances by bands such as Billy Joel, U-2, etc.

"I feel my professional entertainment background has given me the experience I need to flawlessly coordinate and conduct my special DJ events."

"There's a certain excitement that comes with being the Emcee at a wedding or private party. It's like doing 'live' TV; you don't get a second 'take' so you'd better get it right the first time."

"It's very gratifying to see your entire audience having a fantastic time on the dance floor, .....that's the exhilarating part.
It's pure adrenalin !!!"
